Puppies in Space

Illustrated by:

Up, up into the skies
The trusty puppy spaceship flies.

Puppies try to eat a treat
But out in space it's hard to eat.
Kibbles and T-bones float away,
They'll master antigravity another day.

out the hatch, the puppies race,
To solve the mysteries of deep outer space
Then, cruise over to the spaceship's door
It can't be over, they want some more!

But every great adventures ends.
Astronaut puppies forever friends.
