

IMPORTANT:

Colgate-Palmolive Company strives to achieve excellence by attracting talented and skilled people for career opportunities around the globe. Our Company uses a variety of ways, both externally and internally, to achieve this goal. This includes postings on our Company website as well as other job search sites which currently include CareerBuilder, LinkedIn, university career centre websites and job sites sponsored and maintained by State Departments of Labour. The Company also occasionally engages the services of select search firms who may contact applicants on behalf of the Company.

Please note that our Company never asks for personal information unrelated to the job application process, such as bank or credit card data, or charges fees to apply for any jobs. It has come to our attention that a number of false advertisements soliciting candidates for employment with our Company have appeared on classified ad websites requesting this and other personal information. Most recently, we have become aware of fraudulent and deceptive job postings on Craigslist. Please be aware that Colgate has not, at any time, advertised or posted for positions on Craigslist, and any such postings should be considered unauthorised and false.

Any job posting on Craigslist, or any job posting claiming to represent our Company that contains requests for financial details, or that charges an application fee, is not legitimate and should be reported to Colgate by contacting us at: +1.212.310.2000 and asking to speak to our Global Security Department.
